JURISDICTIONAL CONSENSUS STATEMENT

Whereas, the Planning Committee has received several requests for discussion on various problems relating to the treatment of suspended or expelled Freemasons; and

Whereas, while the Committee appreciates and understands the desire for a wide-ranging discussion of these problems, it also must be cognizant of certain limitations both practical and jurisdictional, to wit:

1) that the Committee lacked sufficient time to conduct a meaningful investigation into the veracity of statements being made, and to sort through the conflicting accusations, innuendo and suppositions, in an effort to arrive at the true facts; and

2) that even if a meaningful investigation by the Committee were possible, it ultimately is not within the purview or authority of the Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America to issue any edicts, impose any requirements, or demand any of its sovereign member Masonic Grand Lodges to take or refrain from taking any action, with respect to the suspension or expulsion of Freemasons within the member Grand Lodges' respective jurisdictions:

Now, therefore be it resolved that the members of the Conference adopt, and memorialize by publication in the Proceedings, the following jurisdictional consensus statement:

“The Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America reaffirms the sovereignty and autonomy of each of its member Masonic Grand Lodges and their exclusive authority over Freemasons within their respective jurisdictions. Each member Masonic Grand Lodge has within its Code or By-Laws certain provisions prohibiting Masonic Communication in a tiled meeting with clandestine, suspended, or expelled Freemasons. The application and enforcement of these provisions remain exclusively within the sole discretion and jurisdiction of the respective member Masonic Grand Lodge.”

ADOPTED: By unanimous vote, February 19, 2013 at the 2013 Conference of the Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America, Inc.

RESOLUTION

Be it resolved that the Nominating Committee as described in Article VI, Committees; Section 5. Nominating Committee, of the Corporation By-Laws in presenting their recommendations for Officers and Committee Members, with the exception of; 1) the position of Executive Secretary; 2) special committees where members are elected for multi-year terms; and 3) Host Grand Master, shall, if at all possible, try to recommend persons who have not held an office or a committee member position the previous year.

Statement of Purpose:

Article V, Officers and Their Duties; Section 1. Officers states that “....they shall serve for a term of one (1) year, commencing at the conclusion of the annual meeting....”. the unstated intent was not to re-elect a member serving as an Officer or a member of a Committee to a second term of office or to a different office or committee. This resolution clarifies that intent.
